

Personals.
Mr. Emil Vollmer has commenced business as a boss painter and decorator.

Mr. John Seixas will soon begin the erection of a $12,000 house on Archer avenue, Chester Hill.

Mrs. Burr Davis, who has spent the past four months in Colorado and California, returned last Wednesday.

Mr. Geo. S. Yale, who is entirely recovered, will return in a couple of days, after an absence of more than a month.

Gunner Frank Theall, who knows the haunts of every game bird in the county, captured two woodcocks several days ago near Judge Mills residence.

The Palisade Boat Club, of Yonkers, after careful inspection of the plans submitted for their new boat house on the Hudson, have approved those sent in by Architect Raphaelo de Mount Vernon. He had a number of competitors.

Commissioner Sanford has the distinction of having filed the first certificate of nomination to office in the County under the new Ballot Reform Law. It was filed on the 9th inst., and was pronounced by the Clerk to be in "due and modern" form.

School Notes.
Miss Minnie S. Graham has been appointed a teacher in the Primary Department of School Number One, Eastchester.

The next examination of school teachers will be held by Commissioner Sanford in the Fifth Avenue School House on the 1st of November. Second and Third Grades.

The Board of Education of District Number Four held a meeting in the Fifth Avenue School House last Friday night, and re-organized. The old officers were re-elected, and the following is the composition of the committee:

Repairs and Supplies—Messrs. Warren, Pearson, Bard.

Teachers and Discipline—W. A. Armstrong, Chairman; all the Board a committee.

Finance—Messrs. Blakeman, Allen, Pearson.

Taxes and Assessments—Messrs. Pearson, Hitchcock, Warren.

Library and Apparatus—Messrs. Bingham, Armstrong, Blakeman.

Printing—Messrs. Bard, Hitchcock, Allen.

Miss Lizzie Duff resigned as Librarian. Miss L. Jones was promoted to that position. Miss Nellie Lucas was made First Assistant, and Miss Victoria Bell, Second Assistant.

The matter of building another school house for more accommodation, and in deference to growing necessities, was brought up, but referred for further discussion.

Improvements.
Ground for "The Argylo," at the corner of First street and First avenue has been broken.

Mr. D. Van Wie now of Ninth avenue, has already begun the building of his new house in Primrose Park. The new residence is to be a gem.

A change in the time table of the New Haven Railroad went into effect on Sunday last. The 11:30 p. m. train from New York has been taken off and now leaves at 12:3, a. m. This will prove a boon to theatre goers. There is no train now at 10:30 p. m. from New York. It leaves the Grand Central at 11:02.

Fire Matters.
Washington Engine Company accompanied by a drum corps, paraded the streets of the village on Friday night, in celebration of the improvement to their newly repaired engine. An informal spread followed the parade.

The alarm of fire on Friday night was caused by a conflagration even further off than Prospect Hill, where we had placed it. The blaze was that of a large barn on Hunter's Island. It is supposed that it was caused by spontaneous combustion. A large quantity of hay, stored in the building, is a total loss.

Amateur Pool Tournament.
Mr. Edward Wendler, one of our most enterprising young men, announces that he will have a series of pool games played in his popular "Little Buck" billiard rooms, opposite the New Haven Depot, commencing about the 15th inst. There will be a series of preliminary games, with six contestants, the winners of first second third prizes to be allowed to enter the final tournament, which will be held a week later. The first prize will be an elaborate inlaid cue appropriately engraved. There will be two other prizes in addition.

There are quite a number of expert wielders of the cue in our Village and a series of games to be played as mentioned above, will certainly be productive of friendly rivalry and prove ultimately who will be the champion at this style of game.

Six entries have been received thus far and doubtless, the list of players will be completed before the end of the week.

Admirers of the game who are desirous of witnessing some good contests between "home talent" are cordially invited to be present.

The Eastchester M. E. Church was a cozy, comfortable spot on Sunday. The new sexton, Mr. Tallman Holly has made the place very inviting. Rev. E. R. Foley preached in the afternoon, and Bros. Bard and Jenkins led in the evening.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Church of the Ascension, will inaugurate a series of five concerts and lectures, under advertising columns. These are to be for the benefit of the Church, and will be first rate entertainments.

It will be well for those who desire to attend these entertainments, to buy tickets this week. Nearly four hundred subscriptions have already been received. The course is to be known as the Star Course, and will be given in Henricks Fifth Avenue Hall.

The Young Peoples Association of the M. E. Church held its regular meeting last Tuesday evening, with a good attendance of members. Rev. Dr. Simmons, delivered a most interesting lecture on "Young America in Art," Theo. Van Wyck read "The Country Newspaper," a parody on the editorial get up of the rural productions of the day. The village editors missed a good deal of fun by not being present.

It was resolved to join the Epworth League as an association, retaining at the same time, the name of the present association and with very nearly all of its original features.

An oyster supper is on the programme for the next meeting. The invitation from the Society of Christian Endeavor of the Reformed Church to visit their association on the 24th was accepted with thanks.

Straight! Just notice Van Anshel's mammoth fire-proof brick structure on Second Avenue. It is roomy, safe and secure. Van Anshel also possesses special facilities for moving. Notice his large vans.

Club and Society.
Capt. F. J. Knicker and Armorer Ninian S. Knicker of the Eleventh Separate Company were at Cheelmore on Saturday. They both qualified as marksmen, and made good scores.

Mr. Chas. E. Penfield and Miss Bertha Evans, the daughter of Mr. S. T. Evans of Stevens Avenue, will be married to-night at the First M. E. Church by the Rev. I. Simmons. The young couple, after a wedding-trip, will dwell in the new house built by Mr. Penfield, on Park Avenue, Chester Hill.

A rare treat will be the readings to be given by Prof. Ralph G. Hibbard at Grace M. E. Church in South Mount Vernon on Friday evening. The entertainment is to be given under the auspices of the King's Daughters and Sons. Mr. Hibbard who has been here twice before, has so many admirers that a full auditorium is ensured.

Miss Harriet E. Satterley, daughter of Mrs. John Satterley, at the 224 inst., at the Reformed Church. Mr. De Witt is the son of Mr. Peter De Witt, and himself a well-known young business man. After a wedding-trip they will probably settle down at the house of Mrs. Satterley on Stevens Avenue.

On Thanksgiving night, an entertainment consisting of a drama, concert and hop, will be given under the joint auspices of the Mount Vernon Quartette Club and the young Ladies' and Gentlemen's Dramatic Club at Scheuermann's Hall. The drama to be presented is entitled "Gypsy's Ordeal," and is a very pretty piece. A ball will wind up the evening's program.

The first drill of the Eleventh Separate Company last Monday evening at the Armory, called out almost the entire muster roll of the company. Considering the fact that the boys hadn't got together for two months, they did very well. The spectators were quite numerous, and the informal dance after the drill was attended by many charming ladies "who love the military."

Last Friday night Mrs. Pike entertained a few of her friends at her residence on Terrace Avenue in a manner wholly enchanting.

Lively and interesting games were the order of the evening, after which refreshments were served. 'T was near the witching hour of midnight when the guests, after bidding their hostess good night, departed for their homes. Among those who participated in this social treat were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Chivvis, the Misses Chivvis, Mr. and the Misses Mathews, Mr. Taylor and Mrs. Wright.

The fair of the Church of the Sacred Heart, opened with great eclat on Wednesday evening. The hall and booths are tastefully decorated, and are well filled with every thing to satisfy the aesthetic.

The ladies of the church have entered upon their loving labors with such energy as to ensure good results. The old church next to the Rectory, which had fallen into desuetude, has been rescued from the ruin into which it had fallen, and has become a comely hall. A new floor, a gallery and a stage have accomplished the change. The entire interior has now, for the course and purposes of the fair, been transformed into a lower of light and beauty. The net result under the praiseworthy persistence of the ladies and the commendable generosity of others, bids fair to be substantial.

—Good afternoon! Have you tried Wendler's Vernon 5c. cigar?

—New BOOT and SHOE STORE—opened by Henry Rudolph, Jr., on Fourth Avenue three doors above Second street. A well selected stock of fall goods will be found; also will sell at lowest cash prices.

—Our private stock has a good record, and the Grass widow leads the parade of Havana, and together they pluck "La Rosa Del Vuelto." To be had at Korn & Son's, No. 31 Fourth Avenue.

New Advertisements.
The latest "fad" in Village Carts, the production of a noted carriage builder, is a rather pretty and easy-riding vehicle, suitable for ladies, or, in fact, anyone with a leaning towards style, coupled with comfort. It makes a "nobby" rig—we have one of them—purchased it for the exclusive use of yourself and friends. If you like it, more will follow. Suppose you try it—ask to see it at any rate.
